Jamaica Continues to Lead the Pack with Destination Weddings Glamour Destination Management Executes Weddings in Style

Montego Bay, Jamaica – May 18, 2009 – At a time when there is a global downturn in the economy, brides continue to live out their dream of a fairy-tale wedding. However, in order to be more cost-effective, they have turned their attentions on having a destination wedding where friends and family travel together to have a long weekend of celebrations.

Jamaica has long been recognized as the Caribbean island that is most desired by wedding couples. This beautiful and magical island provides the right setting for unique and unforgettable experiences.

Couples can live out their fantasy in a lush tropical environment with powder-soft white sand beaches, beautiful gardens and secluded nooks fit for romance. The backdrop of majestic mountains, charming historical houses, quaint towns and villages, coupled with hospitable people, delectable meals and vibrant entertainment are part of the charm.

Getting married in Jamaica is quite simple. Couples must be on island for a minimum of 24 hours, provide documents, namely notarized copies of birth certificates, valid photo identifications, occupations of both candidates, names and occupation of both sets of parents along with the date and time of the wedding. Special arrangements can be put in place for cruise ship passengers for a day wedding.

Whether the decision is for a wedding event or a honeymoon, Glamour Destination Management provides services that are unparalleled to suit every occasion – a Jamaica Reggae bus for the bachelorette party, high tea and a gentle river rafting trip for the girls, transportation for the whole wedding party and a private outing and picnic for two. Glamour has the ability to make hotel reservations, pull all the vendors together and manage the event from start to finish.
