GLAMOUR DESTINATION MANAGEMENT CORPORATE OUTINGS & EVENTS

Take the Hassle out of Meetings, Incentives and Events

Montego Bay, Jamaica — June 12, 2009 — Glamour Destination Management, with offices located in the business district of Ironshore Estate, Jamaica, has an expert cadre of meeting and event specialists to make team building events, product launches, corporate retreats, beach fun days and other activities a seamless experience.

“Planning meetings and events is a year round business. With over 20 years as a destination management company, Glamour has an unmatched record of managing successful events. Whether it is deciding on a venue, menu, décor, food & beverage, site selection or any other concern that a group might have with their function, we fully understand the depth and detail involved in pulling off a successful event. Our specialized staff is here to help create a truly outstanding experience.” - Rachel Anderson, Director of Business Expansion and Development

Glamour has offered services to a variety of organizations and corporations ranging from Fortune 500 companies such as Sony to local organizations. These services are available in Jamaica, the Cayman and Turks & Caicos Islands.

Moreover, Glamour has an extensive fleet of vehicles to transport clients in the lap of luxury. “Glamour has the capability to transport groups of all sizes and meet the needs of all their clients,” added Anderson.

Glamour will launch a new service which will allow team members to easily transfer between their meeting location and event site. This new service will be available as a private vehicle charter with various seating capacities.

In addition to meeting and event planning, the professional and experienced staff at Glamour are specialists in destination weddings, tours, excursions and much more.
